Well, It's Coolidge
And the Platform is Done
Here, It's Boiled Down
It Won't Frighten You

Current Events
By Arthur Brisbane

MR. COOLIDGE is nominated to succeed himself. The convention cheered for twenty minutes, a long cheer. The band helped as usual.

You should know when you read this, who is to be the nominee for Vice-President. As this is written Senator Kenyon, ex-Governor Lowden and Congressman Sanders of Indiana have been put in nomination. Loud applause for Sanders. He is supposed to be the Coolidge dark horse.

THE REPUBLICAN platform, only six columns long, will be read through by ten millions out of a hundred million people—PERHAPS.

THE REPUBLICANS lead their race, reminding voters that in 1921, when Republicans followed Democrats in power, there were 4,500,000 men unemployed in the United States. That will please the prospect. The national debt has been reduced two and one-half billions. That pleases everybody.

NEXT COMES economy, money saving. Thanks to Secretary Mellon, the Republicans have something to brag about there. "There is justified crowing about 'finance and taxation.' Again Mellon, not the Republican party, deserves the credit. One thousand two hundred and fifty millions a year have been cut out of the nation's taxation. That will please the prospect. The national debt has been reduced two and one-half billions. That pleases everybody.

UNDER "Foreign Relations," unnecessary words are used to say that the Republicans propose to mix this country in the World Court. We are to join, yet without getting quite in it. We are to urge cutting down land armies, use of submarines and poison gas. Meanwhile, fortunately, our chemists are studying poison gas carefully. If we have any sense we shall build many submarines. This country, more than any other, needs submarines.

UNDER "Foreign Debt" the Republicans brag a little about the English arranging to pay what they owe. England deserves credit there, not the Republicans.

THE TARIFF is praised, increased, as it ought to be. This country can't continue prosperous and compete with China or Russia, whether it builds automobiles or anything else, except perhaps automobile building. We seem to understand that.

THE FARMER gets many kind words but little solid encouragement. The Republicans promise "to place the agricultural interests of America on a basis of economic equality with the rest of the world." That might sound all right, set to music, but it doesn't mean much.

The Republicans DON'T say, "We promise to do for you farmers what we do for the railroads. Whenever you need any more money we will give it to you, and by special legislation we shall force the public to pay half enough price to guarantee you a good return on your investment, and your work."

UNDER "Labor" the platform says nothing in a few hundred words. Under "World War Veterans" you read, also, that the poor Republicans can't brag about giving the soldiers the bonus, although a Republican Congress did with cause of the fact a Republican President vetoed it.

UNDER "Coal" the Republicans say nothing in the modern way. They don't repeat what Roosevelt said: "If the mines don't supply you with coal, I'll take them and do it."

UNDER "Conservation" the Republicans say they believe in "effective, efficient conservation, whether of oil, timber, coal or water power." It must have taken some courage to write in that "oil."

N. ENGLAND BOYS DIE IN SHIP BLAST

4 From This Section Among 48 Killed in Explosion on Battleship Mississippi

San Pedro, Cal., June 13 (L.N.S.)—The forty-eight men who lost their lives in an explosion on the United States battleship Mississippi—including four New England boys—went to their deaths sealed in an iron room, it was disclosed here today.

An inspection of the "death turret" today revealed the men were unable to escape because the intense heat of the fire after the blast had welded the trap door on the floor of the turret, leaving them trapped behind 12-inch walls of white-hot steel.

Five officers of the Pacific fleet visited the death chamber today and found the men did not have a chance for their lives. From the preliminary examination of the turret, the officers believe many lives would have been saved if the turret door had not melted. The door opened upward into the chamber. When a hole was cut into the turret to remove the bodies, more than 20 burned corpses were found on top of the door.

Around the trap door were found the extended hands of the gunners, with bare fingers they had tried to claw their way from the lethal vault.

OFFICER HERO OF TRAGEDY. The first of Lieutenant Thomas E. Zeller, of Long Beach, Cal., was the first removed from the turret. He was found at the water emergency cock of the turret's after end.

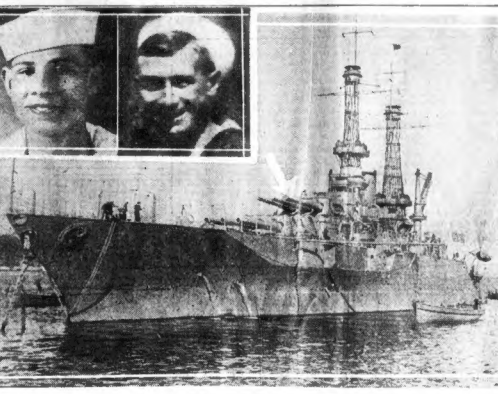

Officers of the fleet said Zeller's last act, turning on the turret, saved him from destruction. This lever on which his hand rested in death controlled the doors leading to the powder magazine doors. His act in shutting the doors saved the lives of a thousand men on the ship.

The accident was caused by the premature explosion of a fourteen-inch shell.

In his second stampede of the final day's session the National Convention nominated Daves for Vice-President after former Governor Frank O. Lowden, chosen the first stampede, declined the nomination.

It was planned to make the break to Burton on the second ballot, but the Western progressive quickly organized, rallied around Lowden, and won a such a block of votes that when the stamp "I started the States swung over to him so rapidly that there was no stopping it."

One of the bandits was wounded by a bullet fired from the gun of his band.

More than 500 armed men, including police of various portions, are on the trail of the bandits.

The train carried twenty-eight and several guards. All were loaded in or held under cover of guns during the robbery.

The train was en route from Chicago to St. Paul, Minn., when the robbery took place.

BELASCO GIVES UP FIGHTING EQUITY

Signs Australian Actress, Member of Union, for Three-Year Contract

New York, June 12.—David Belasco, one of the greatest of theatrical producers who has refused to make peace with the Actors' Equity Association, apparently is ready to give up the fight.

After closing the Belasco Theatre in March, calling in his production on tour, and announcing that he could not "do justice to his theatre, the public or himself" by working under conditions imposed by the closed shop, he has signed a three-year contract with an actress who is a member of Equity.

The new actress is Judith Anderson.

Complicating the situation was the fact that the girl had used the name of her first husband, Daniels, in the intentions while she had been married to Stewart under her maiden name of Storer.

Arrested as Vagrant, Umbrella Mender Discusses Art

New York, June 12.—It is difficult to judge a man's respectability from his outward appearance, according to Frank I. Jordan, an itinerant umbrella mender arrested in Forest Park, Woodhaven, for vagrancy.

Jordan was engaged in making a crayon sketch of a landscape when taken into custody and talked of Michelangelo, Da Vinci and Whistler. His hair and beard were gray and unkempt, his clothing tattered.

Jordan told the judge he was a student of art and artists and compared the Italian, Flemish schools. He said failing health forced him to give up commercial photography and he took up umbrellas mending to keep him in the open air. He was sent to Kings County Hospital for observation.

He is a native of Cork University.

Before going to America he acted for a time as chairman of the Free State's food commission.

Drexel & Co. Get Option on Power Development on Susquehanna River

Baltimore, June 12.—The Susquehanna Power Company has given an option on the projected Conowingo power development on the Susquehanna River to Drexel & Co., Philadelphia bankers.

It is the first step in a plan to increase tremendously the size of the plant, bringing $10,000,000 of new capital into Maryland and forecasting the electrification of the Pennsylvania Railroad between Washington and Philadelphia, the Baltimore News says today.

Acquisition of control of the stock of the Susquehanna Power Company by the Philadelphia bankers is believed in financial circles, the News says, to be a preliminary step.

Development of a market for hydroelectric power, generated on the Susquehanna River, throughout Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Electrification of the Pennsylvania Railroad between Washington and Philadelphia as a part of a general plan to electrify the entire road. Formation of a super-power development covering the entire eastern part of the United States will have been fostered by Secretary Hoover.

"Housewife's Rib,"
Brand New Disease,
Adds to Human Ills

Chicago, June 12.—Invented very recently, a new disease was presented at the American Medical Association convention today by Dr. Marshall Clinton of Buffalo. He called it "subostalgia," but a much better name, his colleagues agreed, would be "housewife's rib."

The disease manifests itself by a sharp, shooting pain in the side. Until Dr. Clinton's diagnosis was accepted, many physicians mistook it for appendicitis, kidney trouble or other serious ailment.

Patients have been operated on for these diseases when "housewife's rib" was all that was wrong. Dr. Clinton said. The cure consists of an operation to remove the tip of the floating rib.

CURLEY BALKS
AT DEMANDS OF UNION

Refuses to Sanction Plan to Employ Only Organized Workers on City Jobs

An alleged effort by union leaders to bring into "the fold" non-union workers employed by a large local contracting firm, engaged in construction jobs for the city led to a spirited conference today by Mayor Curley and representatives of the union and contractors.

The conference was held primarily in furtherance of settlement of the strike of 1,500 workers engaged in construction jobs throughout the city. The principal grievance of the striking workers is that certain contractors have not fulfilled previous agreements to pay prevailing union schedules of wages.

The Mayor ordered Superintendent of Public Works Bourke to write immediately to contractors engaged in construction work requesting that wherever possible prevailing union scale of wages be paid workers.

He also promised that in all future contracts it would be stipulated that the prevailing rate must be paid regardless of affiliation.

But the Mayor refused to lend his support to the proposition of union leaders that all contractors be compelled to employ only but organized workers on city construction jobs.

Representatives went into conference with officials of the Warren Brothers Company seeking to gain the agreement that contractors to jobs within a definite radius of Boston.

Dennis Coleman, president of J. Coleman & Sons, informed the conference that he was paying his men union wages.

Work on the construction of the new Roxbury and South Boston schools, the new fire alarm station in the Fenway, the rehabilitation of Pennell Hall and several other municipal jobs have been held up by the present strike. All union workers except plasterers and carpenters are affected.

PEGGY ILL; COUNT TAKES TRIP ALONE

Chicago, June 12.—Countess Muriel, husband of Countess Peggy Ippolite Morier, is here for a brief business visit without his bride. The former actress has had a slight breakdown, resulting, the Countess believes, from excitement attending her marriage, and stayed in her New York apartment.

Next week, the "Countess" health permitting, they will come to Chicago for a long visit. Business has indefinitely postponed a honeymoon in Europe, he said.

NEW WEATHER MAN
ARRIVES IN BOSTON
The approach of the task of predicting New England weather with all the fortitude which may early training in New England has given him, said George A. Loveland, following his arrival from Lincoln Neb., to succeed Forecaster John W. Smith, the present head of the Weather Bureau at Boston.
"I hope for an unmountable success in the weather here," he went on affably, "although I am so stranger to its idiosyncrasies. I might even find a bit of climate in three spots, despite the fact that

"Hot Whiskey Set"
Worcester Woman
Worcester, June 12.—The clause of the will of Georgine Bourke of Worcester, filed in Probate Court, provided that her "hot whiskey set," given her at the celebration of her twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, should go to her son, Lucien Bourke.
Mark Twain declared that there is no such thing in New England.

BOSTON EXPERT
DEFENCE
Dr. Karl K. Bowman of Harvard to Study Histories of Leopold and Loeb
Chicago, June 12.—Apparently disdaining all hopes of combatting the prosecution's array of evidence and witnesses to the guilt of the prisoners, parents and legal counsel of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard A. Loeb are combating the United States for experts to prove their youths insane and thus save them from the gallows.
The first of the experts admitted was to arrive today and was expected to go at once to the county jail to give both young men a complete physical examination.
Dr. Karl K. Bowman of Boston is the specialist. He is a noted authority on ductless glands. Particular attention in his research will be paid to the life habits of Loeb and Loeb and with reference to the possible effects of their intense application in their studies. He was summoned by telegram.
Dr. Bowman is well known as a psychiatrist at Harvard University. He has been head of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital for three years. During his association with the Psychopathic Hospital, he has conducted many successful experiments.
The James Whitney Hall of Chicago, who probably will head the ranks of defense attorneys, has gone to Eastern cities to enlist personally the help of every available alienist, psychiatrist, criminologist and psychologist.
On their testimony the relatives of the accused boys and their parents plan to hazard all their fight to save them from hanging for the murder of Robert Franks.
Attorneys Clarence Darrow and Benjamin Bachrach, representing the youths, declined to comment on the defense plans. The former merely said:
"You can judge for yourself from the procedure as you see fit."
Coincidentally with the departure of Dr. Hall, the defense began a check-up of the lives of Leopold and Loeb from the cradle up.

Brace Up, Boys; Don't Let the Gigs Get

Chicago, June 12.—The prevention of boys who are lashed by twice that of beautiful girls, Dr. Angus W. Morrison, professor at the University of Minnesota, told the American Medical Association at its assembly here today. Dr. Morrison based his estimate on a study of 2,250 students in the University of Minnesota.
He said that freshmen who have highly an intelligence level occasionally manifested "under-graduate" traits, such as fits of blues, self-consciousness, undue sensitiveness, secretiveness of day dreaming.
"Forty-seven per cent of girls are variable," he said, and 45 per cent of boys.

Beverly, June 12.—More than 110,000 worth of imported liquors and three motor cars, the property of a gang of rum runners, were seized by Beverly police in a raid at Beverly Beach today.
Members of the gang escaped after a mad dash down the dunes, leaving a burning place frequented by summer society folk.
Police of all surrounding cities and towns were asked to make a search for the fugitive bandits.
According to registrations and license numbers, the machines are owned respectively by Arthur R. Abbott, Brock Bay Boating Company, No. 20 Bedford street, Boston, and Michael E. Davis, Canton, Mass.
Chief Division expects to arrest members of the group within twenty-four hours.

Lodge Isn't Upset, but He Appreciates Key

Senator Lodge is "not the least uneasy or disturbed" by the action of the D. O. P. leaders.
Today he sent a telegram to Mayor Curley, thanking him for his kind gift of an official gold key to Boston, which contained the thought that "if the Republicans at Cleveland don't want you, Boston will be your home."
The Senator's tolerance is as follows:
"I am not in the least uneasy or disturbed, but I am sure the time obliged for your telegram."

GIRL IS SENT

KILL LOVE
Fall River Young Woman Ordered to Stay Confined for Several Hours
Fall River, June 12.—Pretty Laura Young, nineteen years old, will remain in a mental police station for several hours as a part of the case of Edward F. Hanley, who was shot and killed by a girl named Laura Young, aged twenty-two, on the night of May twenty-ninth.
If Laura forgets her law for the first time since she was placed on probation for six months, and if she does not, she will be sentenced to the reform school, according to the stipulation of the court given to the couple when they were arraigned following their trial from Fall River, N. J.
Laura is also due for trial, according to another announcement made by Judge Hanley, the latter having retained inspectors to make a report of the case to the Federal authorities that a charge of violation of the Mann act may be placed against him.
Laura and Edward met at the latter's boarding house on Pleasant street on the night of May 29th, and within a short time they were on their way to the local depot in a train.
When arraigned in court, Laura was asked if she was willing to keep from her sweetheart. She said the judge she would do so until October when the divorce will be in force, but the court expressed the opinion that the couple should be separated for good and efforts be made to bring about that effect.

REVERE WOMAN QUESTIONED IN DEATH PROBE

Portland Police Obtain Warrant for Suspected Slayer of North End Merchant

Portland, Me., June 13.—Arrest of the slayer of Vincenzo Viola of Boston was expected here after the police took into custody and questioned a woman resident of Revere, Mass.

The woman was released after she refused to divulge any information concerning the whereabouts of a man who accompanied her here from Revere, and who is believed to have attended the inquest at which the fatal shooting occurred.

The police have obtained a warrant for the arrest of a man who is reported to have been present at the inquest and figured in the shooting.

The three men being held as material witnesses are James Mancuso of No. 19 Chatham street, who later admitted that he carried the body from the house and deposited it in the yard after the shooting.

The officials are convinced that Viola was employed in supplying liquor to the Italian quarter here, as he had made frequent trips here from Boston.

RETURNS DOG, BIG VACATION IS REWARD

Bullard Country Home Placed at Disposal of Watertown Youth for 5 Days

A five-day vacation as lord and master of the magnificent country estate of Miss Charlotte Bullard is the reward the youth is giving a Watertown youth for the return of his lost dog.

Edward Brown, aged twenty-two, of Watertown, is the lucky one who will have the country estate, including a magnificent mansion, automobiles, an airplane, corps of servants, swined houses, etc., at his back and for his five-day period.

When Miss Bullard, daughter of W. Irving Bullard, vice-president of the Merchants' National Bank, lost her dog, a Bull Terrier named "Bully," she was almost heart-broken. She finally hit on the novel plan of offering her estate for five days to the person returning the dog.

Young Brown won the advertisement and recognized a dog that had followed him home the day before as the missing animal. He returned the dog to Miss Bullard at the Bullard town house on Boston Hill.

Details of the outing are being arranged by Brown. He will be permitted to take any friend along on the holiday. All the food and everything connected with the estate will be furnished without cost, while the estate will be entirely under Brown's directions.

The Low Cost of High Quality

Everybody agrees that the best is the cheapest in the end, but sometimes it happens to cost less in the beginning as well.

Take these choice clothes of ours for example—the finest in the land. No man could ask for nor obtain anything better in style, fit, fabric or tailoring.

Yet with our vast volume of business, cash policy and narrow margin of profit, we can sell these superior garments at the usual price of ordinary clothes.

So when you come here for our better values in better clothes you experience a double economy—the economy of high quality plus the economy of a low first cost.
